

Jill Shackelford

Jill Shackelford is a native of Austin. She graduated from Texas Tech University in 1993 with a BBA in management.

Jill is president of Industrial Asphalt, Inc., a local asphalt manufacturing company, and partner of KBDJ, a commercial limestone quarry in Hays County that serves the greater Austin area.

Jill is a member of Hyde Park Baptist Church. Professionally, she serves on committees of the Association of General Contractors and Texas Aggregate and Concrete Association, and is an active member of the Texas Hot Mix Asphalt Pavement Association.

Married to Sam Shackelford, they have two children, daughter Jordan (8) and son Ridge (5).