

Stephanie Gibson

Stephanie received her BBA in marketing from The University of Oklahoma and Prior to becoming the Central Texas CALA Executive Director, in the late eighties, Stephanie was an account manager for Xerox, promoting and selling their products to the K-12 education market. In Houston, she was President of her children's school-parent board and was involved in numerous charitable organizations serving as an associate board member for some.

For almost twenty years, she has been involved in the state legislative process in one facet or another. For twelve years, she was married to a state representative who became the Chief of Staff for Lieutenant Governors Bob Bullock and David Dewhurst. During this time, she hosted numerous receptions and fundraisers for legislative members and became very involved in the Legislative Ladies Club, an organization for the spouses of members and former members. She will be chairing the group's dinner and dance for the next inauguration. Additionally, she has significant political experience, having consulted, managed, and fundraised for legislative and statewide campaigns. Since 2003, she had been a consultant for numerous clients facilitating their needs through the legislative process.

Stephanie currently resides in Austin, Texas and has four children. She attends Austin Baptist Church with her family.