

Paul D. Workman

For over thirty five years Paul Workman has been engaged in the construction of commercial buildings. The projects over the years have included retail centers, office buildings, schools, banks, parks and churches. He has developed several projects for his own account.

Paul D. Workman is the Secretary and Founder of Workman Commercial Construction Services. Paul earned a BS in Building Construction from Texas A&M University in 1973. He is married to the former Sherry Cleveland. Paul has one son, Kyle (who is married with three children) and one daughter, Paula (who is married to Jamon White) both of whom work in the business as President and Chief Financial Officer, respectively.

Paul also has a position as Director of Development with T. Stacy & Associates. T. Stacy is a real estate development firm specializing in large downtown development projects.

Paul served ten years in the US Army Reserves as an Engineer Officer, retiring after serving as a Company Commander at the rank of Captain. Paul has been President of the Rotary Club of Austin, the Associated General Contractors - Texas Building Branch, the Austin Chapter of the Associated General Contractors (AGC) and CompGroup AGC (a workers compensation purchasing group). Paul served on the Board of Directors of the Real Estate Council of Austin for eight years. He is a National Director of the Associated General Contractors of America and is on the board of Citizens Against Lawsuit Abuse-Central Texas. While president of Austin AGC, Paul originated the Community Mentor-Protégé Initiative currently used by the City of Austin and Austin Independent School District. He and Sherry attend Pedernales River Fellowship. They live on ten acres in the Hill Country outside of Austin.

9/18/09