

Cliff Collier

Cliff Collier has been general manager of Howdy Honda since 1989. He is married to Christina Collier and has four children and two grandchildren. His professional affiliations include charter board member of Texas Automobile Self Insurance Group, board member on American Honda's regional advertising steering committee, board member and chair elect of CALA central Texas. He is past chairman of the South Austin Business Council.

His Interests include everything about the Colorado Rocky Mountains, golf, hunting and fly fishing. He is a member of Bethany Lutheran Church.